

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

---

MICHAEL J. BELLEAU,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 12-C-1198

EDWARD F. WALL, in his official capacity as Secretary of the Wisconsin
Department of Corrections, and DENISE
SYMDON, in her official capacity as Administrator of the Division of Community Corrections.

Defendants.

STIPULATION AND ORDER REGARDING CONFIDENTIALITY OF CERTAIN SENSITIVE DOC POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

STIPULATION

The parties to this action, by their attorneys, stipulate that all sensitive Department of Corrections policies and procedures requested by the plaintiff's counsel that the defendants believe should remain confidential and limited to attorneys' eyes only will be stamped "CONFIDENTIAL – SENSITIVE INFORMATION" and provided to the plaintiff's counsel. The plaintiff's counsel recognizes that disclosure of such information could endanger public safety. Consequently, the plaintiff's counsel shall not disclose such information to Plaintiff Belleau or anyone else other than the members of the plaintiff's law firm or experts or consultants on a need to know basis without written notice to the defendants' counsel and permission of the defendants or the court. The plaintiff's counsel reserves the right to move the court for permission to disclose to plaintiff (or others beyond the law firms, experts or consultants who may receive such information under this stipulation) information designated "Confidential-Sensitive Information" should they deem such disclosure necessary and they are unable to arrive at an agreement with defendants for such disclosure.

Attorneys for the plaintiff

ORDER

The above stipulation of the parties, by their attorneys, is hereby approved by the court and, the court having found that good cause has been shown,

IT IS ORDERED THAT all sensitive Department of Corrections policies and procedures requested by the plaintiff's counsel that the defendants believe should remain confidential and limited to attorneys' eyes only will be stamped "CONFIDENTIAL – SENSITIVE INFORMATION" and provided to the plaintiff's counsel. The plaintiff's counsel recognizes that disclosure of such information could endanger public safety. Consequently, the plaintiff's counsel shall not disclose such information to Plaintiff Belleau or anyone else other than the members of the plaintiff's law firm or experts or consultants on a need to know basis without written notice to the defendants' counsel and permission of the defendants or the court.

APPROVED AND SO ORDERED:

Dated this _____ day of _____, 2014.
